Detectives from Counter Terrorism Policing South East (CTPSE) have charged a 14 year old boy from Eastleigh with one count of preparation of terrorist acts, section 5(1)(a) of the Terrorism Act 2006 connected to Islamist terrorism.

The boy who cannot be named because of his age, was initially arrested by officers from Hampshire Constabulary on Friday 12th June and subsequently further arrested under section 41 of the Terrorism Act, by detectives from CTPSE.

He is due to appear before Westminster Magistrates Court tomorrow (Today – Thursday 18th June).
