

300 victims groomed and assaulted by Oxfordshire gangs, report finds

From the Telegraph and the A damning report is expected to disclose that more than 300 young people have been The Guardian seven men were jailed for a string of horrendous child sex crimes against six victims, aged between 11 and 15, over a seven-year period.

...a serious case review by the Oxfordshire safeguarding children board will be published on Tuesday. It is expected to condemn Thames Valley Police and Oxfordshire social services for failing to act. Key findings are will expose how