

A Solution for Muslim Refugees Clamoring to Enter Europe?

by Norman Berdichevsky (October 2015)

Every night on a dozen or more West European television channels, (Americans, by and large are still unaware of this chaos because of the geographic separation of a continent and an ocean), the news programs bring into people's homes, heart wrenching pictures of tens of thousands of destitute refugees from Syria, Iraq, Afghanistan, Libya, and other regions in Africa, about 98% of whom are Muslims, clamoring to enter Europe. In July alone, an estimated 100,000 refugees from the Middle East and North Africa entered European territory.
