

AG Lynch: Terrorists are either Self-radicalized or Radicalized Overseas, Never Here

I have heard this same argument from members of the press for years. Muslims simply spontaneously radicalize or they come under the spell of overseas agents, or the internet reaches out and radicalizes them while they were minding their own business. This administration will never, ever admit the possibility of radical communities existing here, or that Muslim communities everywhere are generally supportive of the goals, if not the means, of terrorists. From the
