

Al Quds speaker who blamed Grenfell on 'Zionists' won't face prosecution by CPS

From at the June demonstration.

a file of evidence from the Metropolitan Police in relation to the actions of an individual at a demonstration on 18 June 2017.

We considered whether offences of inciting racial or religious hatred or a public order offence had been committed, in line with the tests set out in the Code for Crown Prosecutors.

"We concluded that the evidential test in the Code was not met and therefore no charges have been authorised."

The