

Anger after Muslim grooming 'expose' DVD is delivered to Doncaster shops and pub

From the Doncaster Free Press It is a paid for newspaper, weekly, founded in 1925 under the title Doncaster Free Press and Courier of Coming Events.

CCTV captured the moment a man was seen pushing the disc through the door of the Montagu Arms in High Street, Mexborough over the weekend.

The disc, which bears the handwritten message "Muslim Grooming Exposed – It's In The Culture – Project Khan" is also understood to have been sent to other homes and businesses in the area.

It is believed copies of the disc have now been sent to South Yorkshire Police for investigation

It is not clear what information – if any – is on the DVD which is also labelled up “DVD MP4.”

One resident said: “Dread to think what’s on it, I wouldn’t watch it either... While another posted: “I’ve already phoned police and they’re coming to pick it up.”

Another added: “Please for the life of me don’t play it – it could be a virus inbedded in it. Hand it to police.” “I wouldn’t check it to see, could be some very horrible things on it you can never unsee,”

I couldn’t find anything else out about this so I had a look on Twitter. People are re-tweeting the Doncaster Free Press story, without further details but some of the comments accord with my own thoughts.

better act quick or everyone on it will be back to Pakistan

(Police) Investigating the ‘exposure’ of grooming gangs, but not into grooming gangs!

People reporting this to the police..? This is why this shit happens cos people turn a blind eye to what happened to those poor girls.. Focus should be to stop it happening

I’m sure they’ll (the police) investigate this more thoroughly than the rape gangs

Anger over the truth..? Or anger over the perpetrators being exposed..?

The ‘anger’ in the headline refers to what? The fact girls are abused or someone posted a CD through businesses letter boxes?

Are they investigating the contents of the DVD or just who delivered them?

So theres a rape goin (gang?) on in doncaster aswell now??
This the next scandal thats been kept quiet

Its happening up and down the country but its not apart of the agenda mate

I'm sure the police will investigate only to make sure the correct pronouns were used

The police should have done their job and arrested the Muslim rape gangs but were too busy being politically correct. Now their job is being done by concerned citizens, they want to silence them. Says more about the state of the police.

Indeed.
