

Anti-Racist Feminism Forever

Generation Identity England are hosting an international conference today. Unfortunately Martin Sellner of Austria was retweeted by some of the anti-fascist network women who intend to do their bit to stop free speech. Interesting how men of the EDL and others of the white working class are condemned as being tattooed, shaven headed knuckle-draggers. But on a middle class person tattoos are body art, or 'ink' and an expression of individuality. Sometimes the only individuality allowed them.

I expect they think this design represents multicultural siblinghood (must not exclude the trans community) graphically. And so it does, to a T.

Six obvious women and an androgynous character, only one of which is of white indigenous European appearance (statistically correct for many districts of London and certain other once English cities).

Their eyes are closed; they see no mass rape gangs, no razzia gangs, no FGM. Forced marriage and child marriage is cultural and respected. Honour killings are merely the patriarchy doing what the patriarchy does in all cultures.

Their mouths are closed in submissive smiles. We won't speak out. We wear hijab, or at least respect hijab; please do not rape us.

Their heads are bowed in further submission; we respect your culture. Please do not beat us. Again.

But they know that all is not well, these cowards who pick the soft easy target. #metoo not Rotherham, Telford and Oxford. Look at the scarlet cheeks. They burn with shame

Shame on them indeed.
