

Arab Immigrants Who Came "Seeking A Better Life" In Alabama

More on the EBT fraud investigation and arrests in Alabama. It may call to mind the ring of Hezbollah operatives who lived by smuggling cigarettes from North Carolina to New York for resale, sending profits back to Lebanon, or the assorted Muslim terrorist groups whose operative have been stealing cars in America and shipping them to West Africa and the Middle East. The Development Offices of Hamas, Hezbollah, Ansar This and Hizb That, have been busy busy busy.

If the American government were really to systematically investigate all of these gas stations and convenience stores, all of the ways that money is siphoned from the Infidels and sent to Lebanon, Yemen, Somalia, and so on, and cut off the Hawala system of money-transfer, and in addition began to monitor more closely all Muslim-owned businesses – laundromats, ice cream trucks, restaurants promising “mediterranean” food or pizza with an attempt to obscure the Arab Muslims behind the enterprise – with the reasonable justification that more than mere financial defalcation is involved, because there is a history of such money going to support terroris – that would be useful, one more arrow in the quiver. Financial misreporting – that’s how they got Al Capone.
