

President Donald Trump's Accomplishments

Our movement is about replacing a failed and corrupt political establishment with a new government controlled by you, the American People. There is nothing the political establishment will not do, and no lie they will not tell, to hold on to their prestige and power at your expense. The Washington establishment, and the financial and media corporations that fund it, exists for only one reason: to protect and enrich itself. –Donald Trump

Leaving aside leftists who loath Donald Trump on ideological grounds, starting in 2016, a number of Republicans were intensely turned off by Trump's prominent character flaws—even though they themselves had been advocating the same policies that he advocated and he eventually implemented—to the point that not only did they became his enemies, either overtly or covertly, but openly aided the enemies of the Republican Party, and of the nation, even to the point that they looked the other way to the massive, blatant voter fraud that took place in November, just as long as the hated man went away. To these individuals that I met over the years, I urged them not to make the error of mistaking the messenger with the message, but, unfortunately, their antipathy was too intense and had become deeply ingrained. [\[1\]\[2\]](#) 20/20 vision is considered to be perfect vision, but for some people in the year 2020, their view of the President remained myopic.

President Trump accomplished a number of remarkable achievements in the time that he was in office. His achievements are all the more remarkable for having been fought against, tooth and nail, overtly and covertly, by a cabal of Deep State bureaucrats, the media hivemind, the Republican Establishment RINOS, the Democrats, and members of Wall Street, all of them deeply contemptuous of ordinary Americans. News of these achievements were either suppressed by the media hivemind, or were minimized and ridiculed, since the propaganda peddlers were obsessed with an all-consuming hatred of the man, surpassing that felt towards Richard Nixon, so you probably may not even be aware of them. They constantly declared that Trump was the worst president in history, without actually saying exactly why.

When Andrew Jackson became president, the Eastern elites were horrified that such a barbarian had been elected president. They were further horrified when his uncouth supporters swarmed into the White House for the celebration, breaking windows and furniture in the process. History tends to repeat itself. When Trump ran for office and ultimately became president the current elites were likewise horrified that this vulgar outsider with his plebian followers had become prominent Nonetheless, here, then, are some of his accomplishments (each highly significant), in no specific order (and keep in mind that these are not all):

Lowered taxes for everyone.

Hundreds of ridiculous, crippling, regulations were jettisoned.

Muslims' terrorism gone. Remember the constant terrorist attacks by Muslims, the ones that killed or injured hundreds of people in Orlando, Boston, New York and elsewhere? Of course you don't. Gone. They have practically disappeared after an aggressive anti-terrorism approach instead of just trying to convince the jihadists that "Islam is a religion of peace." And remember when barring admission to anyone from Muslim terrorist countries was denounced as—what else?—racism by leftists who hate their country and want to see it destroyed? Liberals even predicted that Trump's stand against Muslim immigration would result in an increase in attacks and hostility because the Muslims would get upset, that it was better to grovel and apologize to them. The exact opposite happened. And jihadists, given the opportunity to control this country, would engage in the genocide of Jews and gays, as they have often openly declared.

No additional endless wars. Remember when Democrats (Bill Clinton, LBJ) and Republicans (the Bushes, John McCain, Max Boot), got us into wars, regardless of their citizens' wishes? No more new tar babies under Trump. For the first time in fifty years there were no new wars. Which upset the military-industrial complex. And to point out the obvious: those persons who constantly urge the US to go to war, always stay at home in a nice, safe, warm bed. Does Max Boot, for example, even know where a bullet comes out of a gun? And if you had any doubts how thoroughly brainwashed are some students then consider the fact that many students considered the biggest threat to world peace to be not Vladimir Putin of Russia, nor Kim Jong-un of North Korea, nor Xi Jinping of China nor Ali Khamenei of Iran, but . . . Donald Trump.

Destroyed Isis. R.I.P. And remember when the Obama administration sent half a billion dollars to fight Isis, or Syria's ruler, or al-Qaida, or somebody, anybody, and had no idea where the money disappeared to? Or who was fighting who? Or who the aid was supposed to go to? And nobody was ever held responsible for this particular fiasco?

Cured a moribund economy. For years, both Republicans and Democrats worked to cripple the American economy. They had us convinced to become fatalistic about America's decline and told us to cheerfully accept it—that America would go from a manufacturing economy to a service economy. Obama ridiculed Trump, saying that to cure the economy a magic wand would be needed.

Yet, because of Trump, businesses came back from overseas. Lowest unemployment in over half a century for Hispanics, blacks, Asians, whites. In February 2020, the US unemployment rate hit a 50-year low of 3.5%. Lowest number of people on food stamps and unemployment. Wages went up. Bonuses were given. New house sales up. Stock market reached the stratosphere. GDP hit 4.1%. And since people now had money in their pocket, they went on vacation. The United States was the first country in history to increase its GDP by one trillion dollars.

And this took only one year to achieve! Whereas the Democrat and Republican establishment had told us it just wasn't going to happen. American prosperity was over, they said. They lied to us.

And remember when Paul Krugman from The New York Pravda, who is constantly fomenting hatred, said that the economy would collapse the moment Trump became president? You can still read his daily venomous writings in most newspapers.

Meanwhile, Pelosi, among others, minimized the growth of the economy. Some even had the nerve to try to credit Obama with the overheated economy.

The economy was doing so good that liberals were praying that a recession would come along by the time of the 2020 election. When the virus hit, Democrats crippled their state economies through lockdowns and, predictably, blamed Trump for the chaos.

NAFTA was renegotiated. "For decades politicians have talked about fixing broken trade deals only to do absolutely nothing about them," President Trump said. "My Administration is the first to actually keep our promise and deliver." He did.

Scrapped the TPP. The Democrat/Republican cabal wanted to enact the Trans-Pacific Partnership, and "free trade," which would have resulted in finally turning the USA into a Third World country. Though support was declining for TPP, Trump stopped this dead cold.

Trump attacked Mauritania's slavery. Something that leftists don't want mention is the fact that slavery still exists. In Africa. Especially in Muslim countries. But they are outraged about slavery in this country two centuries ago. To them, that's what's important. And we must all obsess about it 24/7.

NATO pays up. NATO is an anachronism, built to deter Soviet aggression. The Soviet Union no longer exists. Regardless, NATO's members policy was to defend Europe . . . down to the last American. Trump forced NATO members ("our good allies" according to the media hivemind) to pay up money owed for their own protection. He made NATO countries pay for their self-defense.

Peace with Russia. Remember when, during the election, Hillary declared that she would shoot down any Russian planes that interfered with her plans in Syria? WW III! Trump realized that Russia does not pose a direct threat to America. And yes, Putin is a thug; Trump knows that. But there is no point in escalating tensions.

Aid to Ukraine. He sent arms to Ukraine to help them defend against Russian aggression instead of just blankets (yet, liberals nonetheless insisted for years that he was Putin's puppet).

Peace with North Korea. Remember when we were about to have a shooting war, with nuclear missiles, with NK? Trump defused the situation and de-escalated tensions with that country, to the point of meeting with the dictator. Even so, he walked away when presented with NK's absurd demands.

Jerusalem. He moved the embassy to Jerusalem, after decades of request by Israel. The irony here is that many American Jews who are leftists obsessively hate Trump and repeatedly call him a Hitler and an anti-Semite. Yet, in the 1990s he publicly criticized private clubs in Palm Beach for not admitting Jews. He opened Mar-a-Lago with the stated purpose of bringing a club into the community that was open to Jews and other minorities. His daughter married a Jew and converted, and his son-in-law is a trusted (though questionable) adviser. Are those the actions of an anti-Semite?

Oil independence. For the first time in over 75 years, America stopped being so dependent on foreign oil.

Top oil producer. The USA is now the world's top oil producer, even surpassing Saudi Arabia. Trump haters proclaimed that Obama should get the credit (seriously, they do).

Deep State. As with fake news, he brought public attention to the fact that, within the government bureaucracy, bureaucrats engage in acts destructive to the country, and even engage in illegal activity. One bureaucrat even lied to the president saying that troops had been withdrawn from the Middle East, whereas in reality they had not. Unfortunately, the uncovering of these arrogant bureaucrats did not go far enough.

Fraudulent elections. As with the Deep State and fake news, he spotlighted the fact of fraudulent elections, something that Democrats have engaged in for decades but was considered to be in bad taste to acknowledge, much less spotlight national attention on it (all historians, for example, agree that the Democrats won the 1960 presidential election through sheer voter fraud in Texas and Illinois). As for the 2020 presidential election, one black individual nailed it when he said, "You gonna tell me that a senile, white racist won more votes than Barak Obama? Especially black votes?"

Fake news. Like the boy who cried out that the emperor wore no clothes, Trump pointed out, and has repeatedly pointed out, that the media hivemind engages in fake news, i.e., in propaganda. In lies. We all knew it. But the politicians were frightened to state the obvious. If it was possible to send leftist propaganda peddlers further into a frenzy, this was it. American “journalists” have killed journalism as a respectable profession in this country
