The Airs

the height of civilization is not a seasonal horse race at churchill downs...

of course not dear friend dressing for it is.

The Art of War

who even stops to listen to the next ignorant sentence...

when did anyone ever hear of a general stopping the sack of a city and the slaughter of its women and children to finish a poem.

The Explanation Goes

the explanation goes
movement depends on a relationship to something else... well i always want to skip the small tasks and have someone explain the something else first.
