

The West Ham Mega-Mosque – Latest Plans Submitted

by Esmerelda Weatherwax (October 2012)

when I wrote this. The grandiose plans of that scheme were rejected by the council, the London Borough of Newham, and the trustees fell out with the first firm of architects and their second replacements in any event.

webpage for comments and objections is here. As Tablighi Jamaat said, it is a national institution, and its position so close to the Olympic site definitely makes it an institution of interest to all Londoners. I would ask anybody with an interest in or connection to London to consider registering their reasoned and reasonable objection.
