

Whitehall Act of Remembrance with March for England

by Esmerelda Weatherwax (December 2009)

Al Quds Day demonstration in September. The reason that March for England demonstrate against this, and have done so for several years prior to the formation of the EDL is the involvement and sponsorship of Hizb-ut-Tahrir the political party whose avowed purpose is the advancement of Islam and the restoration of the Caliphate. Their involvement takes the demonstration away from the realm of free speech and makes it something which has to be countered.

They would do the same were there to be, for example, a resurgence of IRA activity, and for the same reasons.

The prospect of sharia law operating in this country is abhorrent, as is the preaching of the likes of Anjem Choudary.
