Assange, Clinton Lies and Libya

Gateway Pundit:

Secretary of State Hillary Clinton knew that the US was sending arms from Libya to Syria back in 2011, a year before the Benghazi consulate attacks.

Hillary Clinton denied she knew about the weapons shipments during public testimony (under oath) in early 2013 after the Benghazi terrorist attack.

Senator Rand Paul questioned Hillary Clinton about this gun running program back in January 2013 during her testimony on the Benghazi terrorist attack.

You know, I'm old enough to remember when lying under oath was a serious crime. Hillary seems to do it constantly with no consequences whatever. Humm.
