

Bennetta Betbadal, Assyrian Christian from Iran: Fled From Persecution Inflicted by Shiite Muslims, Only To be Murdered by Sunni Muslims...in San Bernardino, California

Of all the stories of all the victims murdered by the two Muslim ghazi raiders who attacked a Christmas party in San Bernardino on 2 December 2015, this is perhaps the most wrenchingly-sad. It is also, for me, a source of deep anger.

It exposes very clearly the deadly folly indulged in by any non-Islamic country that permits Muslims to settle in their midst. Every Muslim permitted into any Infidel land renders that land less safe not only for the non-Muslims already there resident but also for all immigrant non-Muslims – whether apostates from Islam, or members of non-Muslim communities long subjected to the misery of Dhimmitude – who are trying to find a safe place to which they can flee, far away from the Dar Al-Islam.

Here is Bennetta's story, as told by Larry Altman and published by the San Bernardino Sun.

“Bennetta Betbadal, killed in San Bernardino shooting, fled Iran to avoid Islamic extremism’.

She was not just ‘killed’. She was murdered. Butchered in order that her blood might feed the insatiable thirst of the Islamic ‘god’. Butchered, so that all ‘infidels’ might be terrorised, and the infidel state weakened, so that the megalomaniacal Muslim dream of a global caliphate, a Muslim despotism forcing all of humanity to submit to the inhuman cruelty of the Sharia, might be realized. – CM

'Bennetta Betbadal, born in Iran in 1969, fled to America when she was 18 to "escape Islamic extremism and the persecution of Christians that followed the Iranian Revolution", her family said in a statement.

'On Wednesday, she was among the 14 victims shot to death (sic: 'ritually murdered' – CM) at the Inland Regional Centre in San Bernardino by a husband and wife under investigation for possible Islamic extremism.

By two Sunni Muslims, husband and wife, who were engaging in Jihad exactly as per the instructions in the Islamic texts and the canonical example of Mohammed the warlord. – CM

"There is no reason for evilness", her husband, Arlen Verdehyou, said in an interview. "You just have to be strong for each other".

This evil, however, has a source. To repeat, it arose from the murderers' obedience to the Quran, Sira and Hadiths, and the Sunnah of the so-called 'prophet' Mohammed. – CM

'The family statement said Betbadal settled in New York City after she came to America, and eventually moved to California, where she married her husband, a police officer at Riverside Community College, in 1997.

'They moved to Rialto, and had three children, two boys and a girl, now ages 10, 12 and 15.

'After graduating from Cal Poly Pomona with a degree in chemistry, Betbadal took a job as an inspector with the San Bernardino County Health Department in 2006.

"Bennetta was proud to work for the people of San Bernardino County", the statement said. "She loved her job, her community, and her country".

'Verdehyou said he and his wife exchanged texts at 8 am Wednesday. He told her he had withdrawn money from the bank and would do some Christmas shopping. He told her to have a great day.

'Betbadal left the house excited about a presentation she was scheduled to give to her supervisors and co-workers at their annual meeting at the IRC.

"She decorated a beautiful Christmas tree", her husband said.

'The couple, religious Roman Catholics, were married in March 1997.

'On September 5 2009 she wrote a Facebook post to Ashur Bet Sargis, an Assyrian pop singer, "My dearest Ashur, I thank God for creatng you, for creating such a wonderful loving human, and for giving you such a great talent. May our Lord Jesus be with you all the days of your life."

'On Thursday, Verdehyou was with his two sons and daughter at their Rialto home as they awaited word of Betbadal's fate. Although he had not heard from her since their Wednesday morning text exchange, he was holding out hope.

'The news finally arrived when coroner's officials came to the door.

'Family members said Betbadal's greatest love was for her husband, her children and her extended family. A gofundme account was established to assist them.

'In the statement issued to the news media the family said, "It is the ultimate irony that her life would be stolen from her that day by what appears to be the same type of extremism that she fled so many years ago".

Her life was stolen by Islam; by Muslims.

It is long past time for the nations of the non-Muslims to deny all further entry to any and all identifiable Muslims. Then other Bennetta Betbadals will not be murdered by Muslims in the very places to which they have fled in order to escape from...Muslims. – CM
