

Biden, Soft Everywhere, Is Soft On Jordan, Too

by Hugh Fitzgerald

Joe Biden recently met with Jordan's King Abdullah. It was a meeting all full of smiles. The King was assured of continued American support, financial and diplomatic. Jordan receives $1.3 billion a year in American aid, more than any country save our ally Israel. But in return, the Jordanians have not been asked to do the one thing they should be willing to do: to extradite to the U.S. for trial the mastermind of the Sbarro pizzeria bombing. A report on this failure by Biden is here: "Biden, bring the Sbarro massacre mastermind to justice," by Michael Freund, Jihad Watch.
