

British far-right activist Tommy Robinson to speak at Czech parliament cancelled

From Prague Daily Monitor reports:

However, as Czech Television reports, the organisers of the conference on family rights in the 21st Century, that invited Robinson, MP Milan Pour (ANO) and Senator Jitka Chalankova (Independent), decided to cancel the conference, late on Thursday, after an outpouring of criticism. Pour's party distanced itself from the event.

The authorities are really scared. Pressure is being brought to bear from somewhere, even in a Visegrad country.