

Child sex gang of seven 'predatory' men who abused girls as young as 13 in a 's* wagon' with licence plate ending 'SHG' are convicted after jury took 24 DAYS to reach their verdict

I have been trying to keep up with this trial since last year. I could hardly believe when the cause list showed the jury going out, then legal submissions, then they went out again and so on for weeks. I knew there was a reporting restriction but it this was completely outside my experience. However the reporting restriction was lifted this afternoon and the local and national press have the story. From the Oxford Mail and the
