

Connect the Dots!

By Armando Simón

Here are a few events that we should all keep in mind—constantly. Just a reminder:

The Madrid train bombing was done by Muslims.

The Bali nightclub bombing was done by Muslims.

The London subway bombing was done by Muslims.

The Moscow theater hostage-taking was done by Muslims.

The Boston Marathon bombing was done by Muslims.

The Pan Am flight bombing was done by Muslims.

The USS Cole bombing was done by Muslims.

The Underwear bombing was done by a Muslim.

The Ft. Hood shooter was done by a Muslim.

The Beltway sniper was a Muslim.

The shoe bomber was a Muslim.

The Air France hijackers that landed at Entebbe were Muslims.

The Buenos Aires bombing was done by Muslims.

The attack on the US embassy in Libya was done by Muslims.

The Khobar Towers incident was carried out by Muslims.

The bombing at the US embassy in Kenya was done by Muslims.

The Beslan school attack was carried out by Muslims.

The bombing at the World Trade Center was carried out by Muslims.

The hijacking of airlines and flown into the WTC were done by Muslims.

The mass murder at the Mumbai hotel was carried out by Muslims.

The stabbing of a bishop in Australia was carried out by a Muslim.

The man who stabbed someone at Bordeaux was a Muslim.

The murderer who stabbed an old man in Hartlepool was a Muslim.

The men who raped a number of girls in Newcastle were Muslims.

The man who murdered a teenage girl in Vienna was a Muslim.

The man who stabbed a Jewish man in the back in Paris was a Muslim.

Three Jews were assaulted in Londonistan by Muslims.

A person who attacked people in Brussels with an AK-47 was a Muslim.

A mass stabbing attack in Dublin was carried out by a Muslim. The (literal) cocksucking Irish Prime Minister was furious not at the stabbing but at the anti-Muslim graffiti that followed.

When a German woman and her daughter took in a refugee in a gesture of virtue signaling, the man attempted to murder them. He was a Muslim.

In Nantes, in an act of Christian charity, a priest took in a Muslim who murdered him.

In Parisistan, tourist women were molested and raped near the Eiffel Tower by Muslims.

In Parisistan, a Muslim attempted to eat a Frenchman, but failed, possibly because of the smell.

In Parisistan, a Muslim raped and killed a 12 y/o girl.

In France an Albanian Muslim murdered his host.

In Parisistan, a man stabbed six people at a railroad station.

In Sweden a Muslim raped a child 100 times. The authorities refuse to deport him.

In Hamburg, a girl was gang raped by Muslims.

In Dortmund, a man who threw a Molotov cocktail at two families in a playground was at first labeled a right-wing extremist but turned out to be a Muslim.

In Würzburg, a Muslim stabbed nine people.

And so on, and so on, and so on, and so on, and so on, and so on, and so on, and so on, and so on, and so on, and so on, and so on.

Any questions?

Keep in mind that Pseudo-President Biden—who is actually a sock puppet for the Communist cabal in the White House—is planning to bring in thousands of Gazan Muslims into the country to join the ones already causing hell in various cities.

Now, you can be a knee-jerk liberal and call me Islamophobic if you like (thank you very much, I am, and you should be too), but at some point one can't help but connect the dots. I understand that for some people it is very hard, even when the facts are staring right at their faces.

That is a symptom of fanaticism.

Or fear.

Or stupidity.

Armando Simón is an Islamophobic, originally from Cuba, and a retired psychologist who is the author of numerous books, such as Very Peculiar Stories and A Cuban from Kansas.