

Craig Considine Would Have You Believe Muhammad Followed The Golden Rule

“Sociologist, speaker, writer” and, by the sound of him, World’s Greatest Authority, Craig Considine believes that Jesus and Muhammad had so much in common, and among those things that they so much had in common was adherence to the Golden Rule. You remember that rule, don’t you? Do unto others as you would have them do unto you? Doesn’t that sound just like what is to be found in Qur’an 9.5 and 9.29 and a hundred other verses? Doesn’t that make you think of the Hadith in Al-Bukhari and Muslim?

Considine’s idiocy on display here.
