

Demented And Unspeakable: Noam Chomsky

He cannot make the distinction between the deliberate killing of cartoonists for “mocking Mammad” – thus imitating what they think Muhammad would have done, based on their reading of the Hadith about Asma bint Marwan, Abu ‘Afak, and Ka’b bin al-Ashraf – and the fact that in military actions by Western powers (American and other NATO members in Serbia, Israel in the latest Gaza campaign) sometimes journalists are among those killed, but not because they are journalists, or because of anything they, those journalists, said or did.

He’s mad, stark raving mad, Noam Chomsky.

Here.