

EXCLUSIVE: Sickening footage of Palestinian children pretending to stab Jews exposes 'festival of hate' funded by Jeremy Corbyn's pet charity

Sickening footage of a seven-year-old Palestinian girl 'stabbing' Jews was taken at a 'festival of hate' partly funded by a UK charity supported by Jeremy Corbyn and Labour MPs, in the link).

Corbyn's involvement with Interpal stretches back many years and connects him to a variety of extremists.

He has admitted being a personal friend of Interpal's chairman, Ibrahim Hewitt, 58, a controversial Islamic hardliner who runs a private Muslim school in Leicester that cited sharia law in its child protection policies.

Speaking at a pro-Palestinian event in East London in February 2013, Corbyn said: 'I've got to know Ibrahim Hewitt, the Chair, extremely well, and I consider him to be a very good friend, and I think he's done a fantastic job.'
