

Facebook Bans St. Augustine Quote as 'Hate Speech'

According to Facebook, St. Augustine is too judgmental.

The forbidden quote:

Let us never assume that if we live good lives we will be without sin; our lives should be praised only when we continue to beg for pardon. But men are hopeless creatures, and the less they concentrate on their own sins, the more interested they become in the sins of others. They seek to criticize, not to correct. Unable to excuse themselves, they are ready to accuse others.

Sin is the deliberate rebellion against the Father's will and evil is the result. Seek to do the Father's will and goodness and righteousness will be the result. "Seek and ye shall find." There is nothing hidden which will not be revealed. St. Augustine sought truth and wisdom was the result.
