

Fatah And The PA Encourage The Stabbing Attacks On Jews

The Slow Jihadists of the PA (Fatah), that is the PLO, has never been non-violent. It distinguishes itself from the Fast Jihadists of Hamas mainly by its willingness to utter, for criminally credulous Western audiences, a few soothing phrases, and to conduct Jihad not only through violence, but through other means – mainly a non-stop diplomatic and propaganda offensive – that the Fast Jihadists of Hamas don't bother with.

The stabbing of twelve Israelis on a Tel Aviv bus today, the running down of Israelis with cars and tractors, and other attacks using other means, have been constantly encouraged by the PA. Why does the American government not, at the very least, cut off all aid to the PA? Why doesn't Europe? Why do they support those conducting violent Jihad when other instruments of Jihad are employed at the same time, thus giving the illusion of "moderation" for some? Why, indeed, do the world's non-Muslims support Jihad anywhere, against any other non-Muslims? Is it really beyond the wit of the Israelis to make clear that the war being waged against them is not and never was a

"national liberation" struggle, but always a Jihad, rooted in and demanded by Islam, and it will never end, no matter what, any more than the Jihad of Muslims in Europe to remove all obstacles to the spread, and then the dominance, of Islam, have no end. But these, and other examples of Jihad, can be fought, and the threat brought down to something manageable, if Muslims are never encouraged, nor supported in any way, by non-Muslims. And all that is required is that a sufficient number of non-Muslims become aware of what is inculcated by Qur'an and Sunnah.
