

Fifth Isil runaway held on take-off

It turns out that one of the girls from Bethnal Green Academy who was made a Ward of Court to stop her defecting to ISIS/ISIL last week was stopped in her earlier attempt. She was following girl(s) from the private Muslim School(s) in the borough run by the East London Mosque. Also more about papa's connection with the jihadist underworld.

From the Zubair Nur, 19, went to London East Academy, one of six private Muslim schools identified by Ofsted in November as leaving children "vulnerable to extremist influences and radicalisation." Nur was also a lead volunteer for the IFE's youth wing, the Young Muslim Organisation (YMO), and attended private study classes with the mosque's imam, Abdul Qayyum.
