

Five teenage boys have been arrested by anti-terror officers after police foiled their plans to travel together to join a terrorist “organisation

From the One of those arrested is aged 15, one is 16, two are 17 and another is 19. All five suspects have been detained on suspicion of Preparation of Terrorist Acts contrary to Section 5 of the Terrorism Act 2006