

Generation Identity at Speakers Corner

//SUNDAY THE 15TH//
//10AM//
//SPEAKERS CORNER//

This Sunday at 10 am 120dB will be holding a rally at Speaker's Corner.

For those of you who don't yet know these new far-right players, 120dB is a 'feminist' offshoot of European Hipster-Nazi group Generation Identity.

Piggybacking off of Generation Identity's conference this Saturday 120dB seeks to launch its British chapter.

With repugnant old tropes that should be left to the KKK, 120dB plays into the narrative of the young white middle-class woman being raped by black men. With a mythical crime wave hitting Europe 120dB urges for closed borders and deportations.

Join us on Sunday the 15th at Speaker's corner at 10:00am for a day of #free speech. We will be holding talks, music and a rally.

Let's see if the self proclaimed 'daughters of Europa' really want a debate!

! Let's show them what true feminism is !**
! Bring banners, glitter and noise !**
#rapehasnocolour

For more info please follow @OpposeGI (Twitter) & Speaker's Corner: Anti Fascist Feminism! (Facebook)

To Hyde Park to see Annika Franzisk of 120Db and Generation Identity speak at Speakers Corner. On the plaza by Marble Arch an Anglo-Philippine demonstration in support of President Duterte was taking place. They had a good pa system and their songs were lively. I could see two groups with a police cordon between them. I went first to look at the group who from their small and puny stature, masks and black clothing I took (correctly) to be the group of Anti-fascists and