

Germany Puts 90 Suspicious Mosques Under Surveillance

From the Daily Caller:

Germany's internal intelligence agency, BfV, is currently observing 90 suspicious mosque communities that may have ties to terrorist organizations.

BfV President Hans-Georg Maassen revealed the agency is funding from the government by fronting as legitimate organizations.

"A minority of sleeper cells belong to ISIS. Others belong to other so-called Islamist groups," Opperskalski told Russia Today, "and some of them are supported by the German government."

The "backyard mosques" have targeted migrants as possible recruits by