

Glasgow stabbings: 'Multiple fatalities' in suspected terror attack – latest updates

And another. There is more than one group of terrorists out there I know, but it is Friday lunchtime.

One of the victims is a police officer. From the Glasgow Times and the Connor Gillies BBC reporter tweeting. BREAKING: BBC understands the suspect in triple fatal stabbing in Glasgow has been shot dead by police. UPDATE: The Park Inn hotel where 3 people were stabbed to death was housing asylum seekers during the coronavirus lockdown. Armed police shot the suspect dead at the scene around 2pm. One police officer stabbed & is in hospital.

An eye-witness said: "I saw a man lying on the ground, of African descent, with no shoes on. He was on the ground with someone holding his side – I don't know if it was a bullet wound, a stab wound, or what it was."

Mr Milroy said the man was one of the four taken away by medics and believed him to be a victim of an attack. The knifeman is dead, so this man would be a victim.
