

Good turn out at March against Anti-Semitism

Early reports and snippets on twitter suggest a good turn out for the march this afternoon. They are currently walking down Embankment with the River Thames on their left heading for Westminster Bridge.

A huge crowd walks shoulder to shoulder to #MarchAgainstAntisemitism.

What an incredible sight. pic.twitter.com/InngFbzE0a

– Campaign Against Antisemitism (@antisemitism) November 26, 2023

Chief Rabbi Mirvis (centre) taking part in a march against antisemitism organised by the volunteer-led charity Campaign Against Antisemitism at the Royal Courts of Justice in London (Jordan Pettitt/PA Wire)

According to the Independent attendees include Rachel Riley, Eddie Marsan, Maureen Lipman, Robert Rinder and Tracey-Ann Oberman, Vanessa Feltz, Minister of State for Security Tom Tugendhat, Chief Rabbi Mirvis and Boris Johnson. For non UK readers these are mostly actors and actresses and TV performers. Not the Chief Rabbi – he is a wise and dignified clergyman.