

Gunman dead after mass shooting at Orlando gay club Pulse; dozens wounded and 'at least 40' shots fired

This certainly sounds similar to the Bataclan Paris attack. TV news is reporting the lone shooter is now dead and the police detonated a controlled explosion to knock down a wall and rescue hostages. The FBI is taking the lead in the investigation and it seems as though the shooter may have a suicide vest as well as an assault rifle and handgun. 20 dead and 42 in the hospital.
