

Hate Speech

By Phyllis Chesler

Hate speech—but only against the Jews and Israel (the Jew of the world) has long flown under the banner of free speech/academic freedom/the First Amendment. Hate speech against African-Americans, Asians, Muslims, transgenders, drag queens etc. has been stopped dead in their tracks—as it should be. So why are people suddenly worrying about “free speech” when they’ve never worried about anti-Jewish/anti-Israel encampments, marches, lynching, pogroms, or Jihad?

First published in Phyllis' Substack

Illustration from the Campaign Against Antisemitism