

Hilbre Island

in the estuary of the River Dee taken from the Wirral.

Hilbre Island, little Eye and Middle Eye are tidal islands and a very important nature reserve. They can be reached on foot at low tide but I was happy to admire from the sea front. 