

If Trump was serious about Canada

By William Corden

In the Reg Green style .

If he sent troops up to Vancouver it would be the shortest siege in military history. Close the two bridges and the two freeways out of town and then close up all of the Starbucks. The white flag would go up within an hour□
He's only yanking our chain because he thinks Trudeau is such a wimp.