

Imam Musr: Terror Attack was Unpredictable, Like Lightning

Speaking at a press conference this morning, Imam Muhammad Musr, President of the Islamic Society of Central Florida said: " No one could have predicted this, no one could have prepared for it. This could have happened anywhere. It's like lightning." Then he continued, "I want to caution many in the media from rushing to judgment and from sensationalizing the story. We don't want the story to be shifted from the focus where it is."
