

In The Negotiations With Iran, America Is The Weakest Link, France The Strongest

Story here.

The insensate desire of Obama to get a deal, just a deal coute que coute, is yet again exposed. This is the man who presumes, with all his arrogance and ignorance of the matter, and his cruel indifference to what Israel faces, to make life-and-death decisions for that country, and to have a fit of fury if there are signs of resistance to this, whether on Iran, or on the "Palestinian" diplomatic jihad to push Israel back to the 1949 Armistice Lines as the impossible, war-causing "two-state solution" that is no solution at all.

How angry should one be with Obama? Very.
