

Is Israel Really Trying to Evict Innocent Palestinians From Their Homes In Sheikh Jarrah?

by Hugh Fitzgerald

There have been plenty of stories recently about Sheikh Jarrah, a neighborhood in east Jerusalem where, we are told, the endlessly cruel Israelis are trying to evict Palestinians who have been living there all their lives. It's all part of Israel's continuing "theft of Palestinian land" that the U.N., the E.U., and right-thinking people everywhere must work to stop. If you suspect there's more to this story, you'd be right.

Elder of Zion has the details here: "Palestinians who demand 675,000 Jews be evicted because they are Jewish are complaining about 'ethnic cleansing' in Sheikh Jarrah," Jihad Watch.
