

Islamic State militants blow up temple in ancient city of Palmyra

Everything that happened or was created before the coming of Islam or created outside of Islam now, is worthless to the fervent followers of Islam. Islam is everything, people are nothing, history and heritage are nothing. Only Islam matters – as I've said many times, Islam is a substitute God.