

Israel Law Center Files Motion in Federal Court to Block Iran Deal

against the Palestine Liberation Organization and the Palestinian Authority, who were both found guilty of supporting terrorist who perpetrated vicious terror attacks that killed and wounded dozens of American citizens more than a decade ago in Israel. The case dragged on for an entire decade.

According to a report by the Fox News network, the U.S. Department of Justice informed the court late last month that it is considering filing a “statement of interest” in the case by August 10, in a likely attempt to intervene in the financial judgement against the PLO and PA. A source said the Department of Justice is working together with the State Department on the matter, Fox reported.
