As reported by Elad Benari for Israel National News on Friday 16th March.

“Two Killed, Two Injured in Car-Ramming Attack in Samaria”.

‘Palestinian Arab (Muslim – CM) terrorist rams car into four soldiers (four Jewish Israeli soldiers – CM), killing two and injuring two others.

‘An IDF officer and soldier were killed and two additional soldiers were injured in a car-ramming attack adjacent to Mevo Dotan in Samaria on Friday afternoon.

Friday afternoon. Had the attacker been to mosque that day? Friday, Friday, Friday, the preferred day of all days for murderous Mohammedan mayhem. – CM

‘The injured soldiers were taken to the hospital for medical treatment, said the IDF spokesperson’s unit.

*‘The Arab terrorist (sic: the Muslim terrorist – CM) initially fled the scene, but was later caught. The IDF said he was injured and was taken to the hospital.

Muslim tries to murder Jews. Muslim is injured in the attack or else when resisting arrest; Muslim is taken to a Jewish hospital where he will receive fully-adequate care. This is something that all hostile journalists – such as the ABC’s Sophie McNeil – tend to ignore completely; that a Muslim, in Israel, can attempt to murder Jews, yet never needs to fear that – if injured in the course of the attack or when resisting arrest – he might suffer harm at the hands of... Jewish doctors and nurses. It is very difficult to imagine that any Jew in a Muslim land who was even accused of attempting to injure a Muslim would, if injured, be taken to a hospital and scrupulously taken care of. – CM

‘He is being questioned, and IDF troops are searching the area.

‘Yossi Dagan, head of the Shomron Regional Council, said, “We are strengthening the hands of the IDF and the security forces. Our hearts and the hearts of all of Israel are with the bereaved families”.

So too are or should be the hearts of all jihad-aware non-Muslims, everywhere. I weep for every fellow non-Muslim victim of Jihad, and for their bereaved families.

And so, let us remember the names of those two murdered soldiers: Ziv Deus and Netanel Kahalani, as recounted by Uzi Baruch, again in Israel National News. Click on the link to see their faces. They were aged respectively 21 and 20.

‘The murdered soldiers: Ziv Deus and Netanel Kahalani’.

‘The two soldiers murdered in Friday’s ramming attack are Captain Ziv Deus (21) and Sergeant Netanel Kahalani, 20.

‘Captain Ziv Deus, 21, from the Azor Regional Council, and Sergeant Netanel Kahalani, 20, from the town of Eliakim, were the two IDF soldiers murdered in Friday’s ramming attack.

‘The attack, which occurred (which was carried out – CM) near Mevo Dotan, left two additional soldiers wounded, one of whom is fighting for his life.

'Deus, an eldest child, is survived by his parents and two sisters.

This means that his parents now have no living son. – CM

'His father's uncle, Yisrael Deus, was killed while fighting near the Suez Canal during the 1973 Yom Kippur War. Deus served in the Home Front Command's rescue unit, and is the unit's first soldier to fall during operational activities.

'Kahalani is survived by his parents, Naomi and Dani, and four brothers. One of his brothers is currently serving in the Golani Brigade.

'Kahalani's funeral will take place at 11.00 pm on Saturday evening, at the cemetery in Eliakim.

'Kahalani's father angrily demanded that the terrorist who killed his son be sentenced to death. "We need the death penalty", he said. "it does not help to destroy homes, and it does not help to feed them on the State's bill. We need to throw his family into the sea. If no decision is made, this will continue. It's time to put an end to this. I don't know if I should send my youngest son to the army, or if he should stay home with me".

He will still be in danger if he stays home. At least if he goes to the army he gets a weapon and learns how to use it.

You are living in the dar al Harb, Mr Kahalani; Israel's fight is part of the perpetual non-Muslim self-defence against the exterminatory and total war that is declared and instigated and waged by the Allah Gang, the Mohammedan Mob, the Ummah, the de facto Empire of Islam, waged by that Ummah with the intention – the same for 1400 years of jihad waged in all directions – of forcing the entire world, all of humanity, into subjection to a global Muslim despotism – a global caliphate – and into compliance with the cruel and inhuman, total and totalitarian sharia of Islam. Whether you want to or not – whether we want to or not – you and we must fight and go on fighting, if we wish to remain free, if we wish our descendants to remain free, if we want anything good or beautiful that non-Muslim humanity has ever created, to survive and remain. And if there are Muslim fifth columnists inside our gates, then they must be – not necessarily ‘thrown into the sea’ but, certainly, ejected, into the lands already lost to Islam, if we wish our cities and nations to be able to defend themselves adequately. – CM

‘Initial investigations show that the soldiers were standing next to a pill-box, between an olive grove and the Palestinian Authority Arab (and, no doubt, overwhelmingly-Muslim – CM) town of Ya’bad, near Mevo Dotan.

‘Deus and Kahalani were standing in the path of the car when it veered toward them, and the two soldiers who were injured were standing on the side of the road. The terrorist noticed the soldiers, veered off the road, accelerated, and hit the commander and the soldier who was with him.

‘The two soldiers who stood in the path of the car were killed immediately. Afterwards, the terrorist accelerated towards the other two soldiers, injuring one severely and the other moderately. He also hit the fence surrounding the guard-post. Investigations show that the soldiers did not have enough time to respond to the terrorist.

‘The IDF is currently operating near the Arab (sic: that should be “Muslim-dominated Arab” – CM) town of Barta’a in northern Samaria, where the terrorist, Alaa Kabaha, is from. Investigation by the Israel Security Agency (Shabak) showed that Kabaha intentionally rammed into the soldiers, motivated by “nationalistic” reasons.

Not ‘nationalistic’. He was motivated by the Jew-hatred that is hard-wired into Islam and in which he had been steeped from birth. – CM

'Kabaha's brother was arrested, and is currently being investigated for possible cooperation in the attack.

'Shabak emphasized that there are no other suspects (but one wonders what sort of sermons are preached, and by whom exactly, in the mosque or mosques this man and his extended family attended or attends, and what sorts of things he routinely heard and saw on PA TV and the radio and TV and internet material produced by other Arab Islamic entities all around him; MEMRI and 'Palestine Media Watch' give us a pretty good window onto the inflammatory and hateful content of a vast swath of Muslim-world mass media – CM) and Kabaha was not working under the auspices of any official terrorist organisation.

He didn't need to be. All it takes is the Quran and/ or the Sira and/ or the Hadiths. All it takes, for a Muslim to decide he wants to murder a Jew – or a Christian, or a Buddhist, or a Hindu or any other variety of non-adherent, or someone deemed an apostate or a blasphemer or deemed in breach of the sharia of Islam in some way – is for that Muslim to take Islam, religion of blood and war, fully to heart. The biggest terrorist organisation of all, hiding in plain sight, is the Ummah itself, the Allah Gang, the Mohammedan Mob. – CM

'Meanwhile, staff at Petah Tikvah's Beilinson Hospital are fighting for the life of the severely-wounded soldier, who suffered injuries to his head and limbs. He is currently unconscious and breathing with assistance. Though he is still in danger, his condition has stabilized somewhat. The other injured soldier is in moderate condition, with injuries to his limbs.'

And an update, from Ido ben Porat, Israel National News. There have so far been 8 arrests in the Muslim murderer's home village.

<http://www.israelnationalnews.com/News/News.aspx/243291>

“Weapons Confiscated in Village (sic: that should be ‘Muslim Village’ – CM) near Car-Ramming Attack.

‘Soldier seriously injured in attack in which two murdered, out of serious danger. Weapons found in terrorist’s village, 8 suspects arrested.

‘IDF forces from the Menashe regional brigade operated in the village of Barta’a, where the terrorist is from, overnight, in the wake of the attack on the road near the village of Yabed, during which Captain Ziv Deus and Sergeant Netanel Kahalani were murdered...

‘The forces searched for illegal weapons at a number of sites (hm – did any of those ‘sites’ include the village’s mosque or mosques? – CM) throughout Barta’a, finding weapon parts and a home-made rifle. In addition, during searches by an Etzion regional brigade force in the village of Beit Sahour, thousands of shekels of terror money were confiscated.

Likewise, IDF, Shin Bet, Border Police and Israel Police arrested – at locations across Judea and Samaria – 8 persons suspected of terror activity. Suspects were transferred for interrogation.

‘Sergeant Netanel Kahalani, 20, of Elyakim, who was murdered in the terror attack on Friday, was laid to rest last night in the cemetery in his community.

‘Lieutenant Ziv Daus, 21, from the community of Azor, will be laid to rest at noon in the military cemetery in Holon.’

And finally, here is a report, from Uzi Baruch in Israel National News, that includes reference to the jihadi’s own statements of what he was about.

<http://www.israelnationalnews.com/News/News.aspx/243267>

‘Shabak: Ramming Attack Due to “Nationalistic” Motives.

'Terrorist admits he intended to kill soldiers..".

'Investigations show that those killed in Friday's ramming attack – a soldier and an officer – were in fact killed intentionally, and not in a car accident.

'The attack, which occurred near Mevo Dotan, left two IDF soldiers dead and an additional two injured. Israeli and Palestinian Authority rescue teams arrived at the scene within a few minutes and began treating the injured.

'Initial investigations showed that the terrorist rammed into the soldiers as they stood on the side of the road, strengthening the suspicion that the terrorist intentionally veered off the road.

'A later investigation by the Israel Security Agency (Shabak) showed that the ramming was done for nationalistic reasons.

Not 'nationalistic'. Islamic. There is a difference. The murderer was animated by Islamic supremacism; the jihad imperative hardwired into Islam. – CM.

'At first the terrorist claimed that it was a car accident, but he later changed his story, and admitted that he intended to ram the soldiers in order to kill them.

'Petah Tikva's Beilinson hospital staff are still fighting for the life of another soldier, who is severely injured and is not yet out of danger. The injured soldier underwent several operations overnight, and is currently in the hospital's intensive care unit. A fourth injured soldier also underwent several operations, and is currently in moderate condition.

'On Saturday Defence Minister Avigdor Lieberman (Yisrael Beytenu) (Yisrael Beytenu is the "Israel: Our Home" political party – CM) said that he would ask for a death sentence for the terrorist, and to punish all those who cooperated with him.

Expel the entire Muslim population of the jihadi assassin's village into Gaza and raze the mosque or mosques to the ground; that would send a sufficient message. – CM

“Just before Shabbat began, we were informed of a serious terror attack. We will work on obtaining a death sentence for the terrorist, destroying his home, and punishing all those who cooperated with him”, Liberman tweeted, Friday afternoon. “There’s no such thing as ‘lone wolf’ terror. (Precisely, Mr Liberman. Jihadis are not ‘lone wolves’; they are the pointy end of the Ummah spear. – CM) This is terror (sic: jihad terror – CM) which is supported by [Palestinian Authority Chairman] Mahmoud Abbas, and the Palestinian Authority, which pays money to the terrorists’ families. We will stop them.”

All non-Muslim nations – such as Australia! – that currently give any sort of ‘aid’ to the so-called ‘Palestinian Authority’ should cut it off, now. – CM

‘Israeli Prime Minister Binyamin Netanyahu said, Saturday evening, “From the depths of my heart, I send condolences to the families of the IDF officer and soldier who were murdered yesterday by a reprehensible terrorist, and my best wishes for a quick recovery to the injured. We will work to demolish the home of the terrorist and will deal with him to the fullest extent of the law”.

Got Muslims? Got Jihad. So long as there are large colonies of Muslims inside the gates of eretz Yisroel – and that includes those Muslim colonies in only-partially-liberated Judea and Samaria and Jerusalem – there will be murderous Muslim attacks upon Jews, whether upon soldiers, as in this case, or upon unarmed civilians, even upon small children. The only way to not have attacks of this kind is to expel all identifiable Muslims from eretz Yisroel. Send them to Gaza! If the laws do not permit that then the laws have to be changed to reflect the grim reality: that the Muslim presence within the gates is a hostile and dangerous fifth-column, from which attackers like this car-rammer ceaselessly and inevitably emerge. – CM
