Police believe it is not only terror, but a suicide bomber. 19 people confirmed dead, 50 injured. This is a gig aimed at a young audience. Not a military target, like Lee Rigby. Incidentally it was the exact anniversary of his murder yesterday, and Manchester was his home city.

Not a political target like outside the House of Parliament, albeit it was office workers and holidaymakers that died. This was deliberately aimed at youngsters, many pre-teen, on a night out to hear some pop music.
