

Marine A – application for bail for Christmas adjourned a week.

Friends were in attendance at the Royal Courts of Justice today to support Sergeant Alex Blackman, aka Marine A in his application to be released on bail pending a fresh appeal. Plymouth Herald had a reporter at the RCJ

Lord John Burnett, a former Royal Marine and former MP for South Devon, has campaigned for Sgt Blackman to be released.

He said: “This will be a bitter disappointment to Sergeant Alexander Blackman and his loyal and courageous wife Claire. It will also be a bitter disappointment to the millions of people in this country who have supported them.

“I am amazed that the prosecution were seeking to oppose this bail application given the compelling findings of the Criminal Cases Review Commission.” The Crown Prosecution Service have their own agenda.
