

Mass Humanitarianism is Suicide, Not Altruism

by Lorna Salzman (January 2016)

A recent reading of Richard Moore's "Escaping the Matrix" (chapter 2), from the 2005 Cyberjournal Project, had a welcome evolutionary perspective, which is rare these days. But one important part was left out, which has relevance to the refugee problem, namely the issues of kin selection and altruism. _more>>>
