

"Merry Christmas". Stop It – You're Just Encouraging Them

God's message of love is for everyone, and there is no more appropriate a time to celebrate that fact than on the day we Christians have set aside to remember that Jesus Christ was born from a woman as a mortal man in order to give us that message and to be the full, perfect and complete sacrifice to atone for our sins. The Word became flesh and He gave us a new commandment – "A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another
