

Mob of 30 Afghan men chase teenage girls through German shopping mall, sparking huge confrontation with police

The Bild reported.

Four men, including the two main culprits, were later arrested but three of them have since been released due to 'lack of grounds for detention'.

They are said to have resisted arrest and became violent with officers.

Businesses in the shopping mall have reported an 'increasing number of thefts' and customers being 'molested' by migrants.