

More on “the will to outrage”

By William Corden

The Will to Outrage – New English Review

I guess you would be sent to jail these days if you wrote a song like

“Standing on the corner” The Four Lads

*Standin' on the corner watchin' all the girls go by
Standin' on the corner watchin' all the girls go by
Brother, you don't know a nicer occupation
Matter of fact, neither do I
Than standin' on the corner watchin' all the girls
Watchin' all the girls, watchin' all the girls go by*

No longer is it acceptable to express the pure admiration of female beauty without some devious motive being applied to the enjoyment.

I don't care though!

Here in Vancouver we have some the most beautiful girls in the world, a product of integration and the emollient climate.

There is no better free show than to walk down our main shopping street (Robson Street) at lunchtime (especially in the summer) and to be enthralled by the achingly beautiful, non stop pageant.

“vive la différence”