

'NINETY PER CENT of Germany's severe Covid-19 patients have migrant background and more than half are Muslim' despite making up 4.8% of the population – with politicians 'afraid to tackle the problem in case they look racist'

From the