

No Parades In His Honor, No Streets Named For Him

In America today, the hero policeman who stopped the jihadist attack in Garland, Texas has to remain anonymous for his own and his family's safety. We cannot celebrate him. We cannot congratulate him. We cannot even know his name. Why? Because there are so many Muslim jihadi wannabees in this country, who pose a constant menace to us all.

More Muslims, more Islam, more Jihad.

Stop all Muslim immigration now.
