

Ouch! Don't Worry, It May Never Happen

*"Criminy!
What's making
that garage door close!"*

"Look Dad! He just backed out and swoosh . . . down came the garage door . . . all by itself!"

Yes, electronics and the AVCO Automatic Door Operator do it! No more man-handling garage doors in nasty weather—whether you are coming in or going out—you just press a button.

The AVCO Automatic Door Operator does more than amaze your neighbors. It serves dependably, daily, as your private doorman! Inexpensive and automatic . . . You'll want its trouble-free service for your home. Available for immediate delivery from your local dealer or distributor. Be sure to clip and mail the coupon below for complete details.

I'm not as worried as other people that a sleepy president might unleash a nuclear war by mistake. I remember Art Buchwald, long-time Washington Post columnist, saying that given the way government works, the only thing that will happen when someone presses the red button is that the door of the White House garage will open.
