

PA (oḷim PLO) Responds To The Court Judgment Against It

Scrambling to respnd with this excuse and that, each more wretched and disgusting than the next.

Here.

The “Palestinian cause” is coming undone; the Arabs have other fish to fry, and some may have come to understand that Israel is, to oppose both the Islamic State and Iran, useful. That understanding is begrudging, but it’s there. And while Muslims and a small group of determined non-Musliim antisemites in the West (see Ireland, for example) can continue to push for anti-Israel measures, the menace of Islam wtihin Europe becomes too obvious to deny, and that will limit the appeal of the “Palestinian” cause, which always was just a way to package the Jihad against Israel.
