

Planning application for mosque at Piccadilly Circus withdrawn

I was certain that I posted about this application earlier this spring to make part of the Trocadero building at London's Piccadilly Circus into a mosque. But on searching for the post it seems I didn't. I must have forgotten.

Anyway, the good news this evening is that the application has been withdrawn.

Application determined

Dear Sir/Madam,

The application for Trocadero 19 Rupert Street London W1D 7PN has been determined.

The decision is: Application Withdrawn

You can also view the decision notice track this application online.

If you do not wish to receive further email updates about this application please click unsubscribe.

Kind regards,
Westminster Planning Department

Had I been less preoccupied in May this, or something like it, is what I would have posted from the